

- ❖ What is BG Gear ProDeal: BG Gear recognizes the importance of supporting outdoor professionals in the US and as a courtesy would like to provide the opportunity for outdoor professionals to purchase BG Gear products at a reduced price. The BG Gear ProDeal program is designed to help outfit individuals who work hard while enjoying the outdoors through their professional pursuits.
- ❖ Who Qualifies: BG Gear offers Prodeal Status to those employed in the US by military, outdoor guide services, search and rescue, forest service, national park, outdoor education and others. You must be employed by the entity which qualifies you for ProDeal status a minimum of 20 hours per week.
- ❖ How to Get ProDeal Status: Fill out this ProDeal Agreement / Application and return it to BG Gear along with the required proof of employment. BG Gear will evaluate the application and contact you to inform you of acceptance for ProDeal status. BG Gear may require you to renew your ProDeal status from time to time.
- ❖ Required Proof of Employment: BG Gear requires a current paystub as proof of employment. When submitting a paystub please cross out any information related to how much you earn. BG Gear wants to verify your employment NOT your earnings.
- ❖ Pricing: The rate of price reduction is not a set percentage across the entire product line. Each BG Gear product has its own unique pricing structure and ProDeal discounts will vary from product to product. Your price reduction is confidential and should not be shared with anyone who has not been approved for ProDeal status with BG Gear. Products sold by BG Gear but not branded as or manufactured by BG Gear will not be eligible for ProDeal pricing. Digital downloads are not eligible for ProDeal pricing.
- ❖ How BG Gear ProDeals Work: Some large companies provide a separate login or discount code to enter when shopping on their web site. BG Gear is a micro company and chooses to operate on a more personal level. After you are accepted for ProDeal you will purchase products on the BG Gear web store at full retail price and leave a comment on your order that you have ProDeal Status. While processing your order BG Gear will see your comment, review your ProDeal status, calculate your ProDeal price reduction then refund that amount to you.
- ❖ Limitations: BG Gear products purchased on ProDeal are for your personal use only, NOT for friends and family. BG Gear may limit the quantities of specific products you purchase under the ProDeal program and may restrict the geographic area we ship to. You may not purchase products for others, allow anyone else to purchase products under your name or resell the products in any manner including person to person, online, via classified ads, via auction sites like eBay. You may not modify the products in any manner or obscure any logos on the products. The products that you purchase are NOT eligible for return. You are responsible for all sales, use, or value-added taxes associated with the products you purchase from BG Gear. BG Gear reserves the right to cancel your ProDeal status, cancel your outstanding orders and refuse to accept further orders from you at any time and for any reason at the sole discretion of BG Gear.
- ❖ Limitation of Liability: BG Gear will not be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, exemplary or consequential damages of any kind sustained from any cause of action relating to our sale of products or agreement to sell products to you. In no event will BG Gear be liable for an amount exceeding the purchase price for the products ordered from BG Gear by you.
